See the show at the Court House to-night (Thursday).

Next Monday is county Court Day. Don't forget to stop in and pay us that dollar.

Wednesday was George Washington's birthday. The banks were closed and the post office observed holiday hours.

Rev. Johnson will conduct a temperance meeting at the Baptist church in Preachersville Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

"The need of an hour" Subject next Sunday night at memorial Methodist church Lancaster. Service by pastor twenty minutes song service preceding sermon.

Monday is county court day, come in and see us, if you owe us bring us the money, we need it. If you are not a subscriber to the Record come in and have your name placed on the list.

I have a complete line of D. M. C. crocheted cotton now in stock. No's 1 to 30 inclusive 15c a ball; 40 to 70, inclusive 20c a ball; 80 to 100, 25c. Call and see me. Mrs. L. N. Miller.

Mr. John F. Wagers, well known stockman and politician and ex-sheriff of Madison county suffered a stroke of paralysis Sunday morning which affected his entire left side and he is yet in a critical condition.

Miss Anna B. Darst and J. Owsley Newland both of Lincoln county, were married at the Methodist parsonage at Stanford Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in the presence of a few friends and relatives. The bride is a daughter of Harvey J. Darst and one of the most loved and admired young women in the county. Mr. Newland has been in the C. & C. railroad employ but has been farming for the past year. The happy couple left on a bridal tour to Jacksonville, Fla. They will reside on their farm near Stanford.

Prompt Payment.

The Macabees have paid $3,000. to Mrs. Elizabeth Joseph widow of the late Jacob Joseph. This is one of the safest orders in existence and has paid millions to widows and orphans.

Park Selected

On Wednesday Hon J. E. Robinson received a telegram from Congressman Harvey Heim stating that the park in the center of the square had been selected as the place on which to build the Government Building. In a short time the work will start and we will have a beautiful building in the place where now there is nothing but a few old dilapidated iron benches and a dozen or so sick dogs.

Dangerous Articles.

Within the last week Dr. Burnett has extracted the points of crocheted needles from the hands of three local ladies. The City Council should take some step to stop the good ladies from using sharp pointed crocheted needles else serious results may follow.

The Lesson Hour.

Points not in the S. S. lesson papers are connected with our every day life are sought for in the lesson review every Tuesday night, at the Methodist church in the Study led by the pastor. S. S. teachers of sister churches desiring to prepare the lesson will have cordial welcome. First twenty minutes will be a song service bearing on the lesson in topic of the hymn.

Rural Route Change Of Time.

To prevent the patrons of Rural route No. 1 standing out in the cold a couple of hours unnecessarily on alternate mornings, waiting for their mail the Record informs them that on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday morning Carrier on route no 1 goes to Nina. This diversion makes him about two hours late in reaching points on the return trip from Hackley into Lancaster.

A Musical Cat.

Mr. R. Zimmer, the affable host of the "Kengarian", was awakened from his slumber one night this week by the mellow strains of "The Watch on the Rhine," being played on the piano.

Mr. Zimmer thought at first in his semi-wakefulness that he had been transported to the Fatherland, but upon investigation he found that a small cat, "Little George," the property of Mr. George Wright, had wandered into the parlor and climbed onto the piano and was producing the music. Mr. Zimmer is at a loss to know where the cat acquired his german musical talent.

The Right Move.

A move in the right direction has been made at Hickman, this state, where a truck-growing syndicate has acquired 1,000 acres, which it will cut up into small parcels and let out to those who will grow garden truck on the shares. Not more than five acres will be permitted in any one tract, and on each of these "patches" the syndicate will erect a neat frame dwelling. The demand from near by cities for vegetables and small fruit will be met by the plans of these promoters who are confident their investment will prove a remunerative one. Intensive farming will be insisted upon, and there appeared to be no reason in the world, save a succession of crop failures and that is almost an absolute impossibility, why the highest degree of success should not attend the venture.

These Concrete Walks.

How many feet of concrete paving will go down around the Square with the advent of Spring? Has any preparation been made to put down any? We will venture to say not. Sometime since the City Council passed an ordinance placing it at their option to force the putting down of concrete walks around the square, conforming to specifications submitted at the time. Surely we stand in crying need of sidewalks of some description around the square, there are places that are a menace to the public. Does the City Council ordain just to be ordaining, or will they exercise their option when the weather will permit. Or better still, will the enterprising property owners around the square get busy and put down concrete walks in front of their property without the intervention of the City dads.

Popular Young Couple Married.

Miss Mamie McWhorter and Mr. O. H. Hendren were married at the residence of the brides parents at Paint Lick Ky. On last Thursday evening, the 16th, Rev. F. M. Tinder performing the ceremony.

The bride is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. McWhorter of Paint Lick, and is one of the most attractive of upper Garrard's younger set. She is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Carrier of this place. The groom, "Dock" Hendren as he is usually known, is a son of Mr. Jack Hendren of the eastern part of the county near Kirksville, and himself has been until recently one of the prominent horsemen and farmers of that section. However, he has recently associated himself with his brother-in-law, Mr. Parks, in the firm of Hendren & Parks in Danville. The happy young couple will make their home in Danville.

May Refuse Admittance.

The Court of Appeals at Frankfort last Friday held that persons who are intoxicated are not in proper condition to be received on a train, and may be refused admittance, even though they have purchased tickets, reversing the judgment of the Lewis Circuit Court which awarded M. B. Selsor $200 damages for being ejected from a train of the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad.

Selsor bought a ticket at Vanceburg to South Portsmouth, Ky., and when he started to board the train the conductor noticing his condition, told him he could not get on his train for he would not carry him.

Selsor then went up to the front coach and boarded the smoker. After the train pulled out of Vanceburg Selsor became so boisterous he was ejected. The court here says that after being refused admittance by the conductor Selsor was a trespasser.

Burley Tobacco Union Declares For Cut-Out.

The burley tobacco growers of the state assembled at Lexington Monday afternoon to hear reports from the fourteen counties which have been reported like warm on the proposition. About 175 men were present and the following resolution was offered and adopted with but three dissenting votes, one of whom was Mr. Clarence Tate of Lincoln county who voted against the resolution, stating that about 1000 out of 3000 acres in his county was pledged to the cut out and that he did not think the sentiment at that time justified the cut out. The resolutions follow—

"Be it resolved by tobacco growers and representatives of the Burley Tobacco Union at a convention held in the city of Lexington, Ky., February 20, 1911:

"First—That the lack of organization among farmers, and the low prices of tobacco, are destructive of the peace, happiness and prosperity of Kentucky and all the Burley growing counties;

"Second—That the only remedy suggested is a cut-out of the 1911 crop;

"Third—That this convention, having considered the reports from various counties, both as to acres actually pledged and the general sentiments of the people, believes there is a large majority in favor of said cut-out, and we hereby vote and declare that no tobacco should be grown this year;

"Fourth—That we advise all growers to refrain from making preparations for a crop, and hereby request that any and all such preparations be reported to the headquarters of the union."

The Record is unable to find out who, or by whose authority, Garrard county was placed among the cut-out counties. Mr. R. L. Rose, the county chairman of Garrard county for the Burley Union, informs us that at the last meeting held in this county, which was on last Saturday, there was only 500 out of 6500 acres pledged to the cut-out. He informs us further that Mr. Bradley Wilson asked him to go to Lexington to attend the meeting on Monday but that he refused, telling him that he was sick, and besides he did not think it would be of any use, that he did not think the sentiment in Garrard county was in favor of a cut-out, and that he was not in favor of tying the hands of part of the people and allowing the others to go free.

We are very much inclined to the belief expressed by the Lexington Leader which says that "Steam Roller" methods were employed at the Lexington meeting.

We are fully satisfied that the tobacco raisers of Garrard county were not in sympathy with the cut-out move at this time and under present conditions. We are equally certain that tobacco will be raised in this county. While we would not advocate the raising of a large crop, believing that the reduction of acreage would have a vast tendency toward the bettering of prices for the 1911 crop, yet we feel certain that should a man desire to raise a crop, be it large or small, he will not be molested. Garrard is a county of law abiding citizens believing in allowing every man to follow the best of his own inclination, in the cultivating of his farm, as in all other things, feeling that the law will uphold and protect him in the right, and will punish whoever may interfere with him in his rights. The Executive Committee of the Burley Tobacco Society did not have a representative present at the meeting of the Union people at Lexington, and while they were themselves in session at the time, they took no cognizance of the action of the Tobacco Union in declaring a cut-out.

Another Promotion.

The Louisville Times of Monday Says "Another promotion came to-day to Maj. W. H. Collier, of the Internal Revenue Service. A dispatch from Washington is to the effect that the Commissioner of Internal Revenue has appointed Maj. Collier to the position of Revenue Agent on Accounts.

This is one of the important offices in the revenue service. Maj. Collier will join a large force of men who are kept busy checking up the accounts of the different Collectors in all parts of the country. He will leave to-morrow for Kansas City to check the office there and probably will not return to Louisville for six months.

Maj. Collier has done most efficient work while in the service and has been repeatedly promoted by the department. He was a storekeeper and gauger when Collector Petty took office and was shortly made division deputy. Later he became a revenue agent attached to the staff of Agent Shelby, which place he has filled so satisfactorily that one of the most desirable positions in the service was handed to him to-day. The salary of the new office is about $4,000 a year."

Maj. Collier has many friends here who are glad to know of his success and hope that he may continue to rise in the world.
